The SOMA Classics (part 2)

SOMA is a Vedic Sanskrit word that means to ‘distil and extract’ - an invitation to explore the purity of flavour within our re-imagined classics.
